Larry joined O'Loughlins Lawyers in 1995, having been a partner of Minter Ellison Baker O'Loughlin for several years prior to that time.

Larry has had extensive experience in corporate and commercial law matters, including IPO and other capital raisings, company takeovers, mergers and spin-outs, schemes of arrangements, share and business acquisitions and disposals, mergers of co-operatives and conversion of co-operatives to public companies and has acted for the State Government in respect of substantial and complex matters.

Larry acted (2010-2015) for the South Australian Cricket Association (SACA) with respect to arrangements with the South Australian National Football League, the Stadium Management Authority and the South Australian Government for SACA's ongoing use rights in relation to the redevelopment of Adelaide Oval.

Larry acted for (among others) the following ASX listed companies in connection with IPOs and other forms of capital raising (placements, share purchase plans and rights issues):

- Havilah Resources NL
- Toro Energy Ltd
- Clean Seas Seafood Ltd
- Minotaur Exploration Ltd.

He acted for The Creeks Pipeline Company Ltd in connection with its prospectus capital raising to facilitate construction of a $100m pipeline from Jervois on the River Murray to service Langhorne Creek and Currency Creek primary producers.

In relation to the State Government, Larry:

- acted for its Asset Management Task Force in the $100m tender sale of Forwood Products to Carter Holt Harvey;
- acted for North Haven Trust (Government instrumentality) in respect of the development, division, sale and supervision of the North Haven Harbour marina/residential/commercial project;
- acted for a joint venture of State Government, SGIC and private investors in the initial acquisition and structuring of the Lincoln Cove, Port Lincoln marina/residential/commercial/ tourism project; and
- was a principal full-time member (on secondment) of the Crown Solicitor's legal team in the State Bank of South Australia Corporatisation Task Force.

In 2021 Larry was again included in The Best Lawyers in Australia in the practice areas of Corporate Law, Equity Capital Markets Law and Mergers and Acquisitions Law.
